

St Neots Foodbank 5th Anniversary Appeal

This year we are likely to give 1500 three-day
emergency food parcels to people who are in a crisis

We need your help, because:

- Our costs are going up (including warehouse rent)
- More people are needing help
- Universal Credit is coming to St Neots in October 2018 (and this often means more single people and families need help from foodbanks – this is the experience of foodbanks in other areas)
- We would like to extend our fresh fruit and vegetable voucher scheme
- We want to give out more summer and Christmas hampers to families who miss out on free school meals during holidays

Our summer hampers this year

“What would I have done without the foodbank!”
(mother of a family of three children)

All our work is done by volunteers. We have no paid staff

I was asking myself, "Do I eat or do I heat? With your help I can do both!" (pensioner)

Three of our volunteers

If 50 supporters took out £10 per month standing orders, this would raise £6000 annually!

Please help us by:

- Taking out a monthly standing order for £5, £10, £20 or more (details on website or phone us)
- Sending us a one-off donation
- Donating food via our supermarket collection bins in St Neots (Tesco, Co-op, Waitrose)
- Becoming a supporter and receive our newsletter
- Becoming one of our volunteers
- Holding a fundraising event for us
